Birch Narrows Dene Development Purchases a majority interest in Saskatoon Fastprint

Birch Narrows Dene Development (BNDD), which is owned 100 per cent by the Birch Narrows Dene Nation, is very pleased to announce its first investment in Saskatoon. BNDD has purchased 70 per cent of Saskatoon Fastprint with private investors owning the remainder.

“We are very excited to be investing in Saskatoon Fastprint,” says AJ Felix, CEO of BNDD. “Saskatoon Fastprint is a well-established business that has been servicing the Saskatchewan market for over 30 years. We are impressed with the expertise of the personnel and their level of commitment to provide superior service to their customers.”

Doug Gillespie, the former owner of the company, will remain with the organization as a member of the Board of Directors. Mark Wilson will retain his position as General Manager of the operations. There will be no changes to current operations as a result of this transaction.

“I am very pleased that the new ownership group intends to build on the past successes of the organization,” says Doug Gillespie. “I am also excited to have the opportunity to remain involved in the organization and help in the transition and future growth of the business”

“We will continue to provide exceptional customer service that our clients expect from us and we will be looking for additional growth opportunities,” says Mark Wilson, General Manager of Saskatoon Fastprint.

Saskatoon Fastprint provides a wide range of digital and off-set printing services, such as business cards, brochures, booklets and a variety of other products. A unique service provided by the company is customized direct mail-outs. The company’s data base management program allows them to send out large or small volumes of customized mail, personally addressed to the client’s provided database, efficiently and effectively. Saskatoon Fastprint also provides design services.
